English: Create a fact file on a mythical or legendary creature that you know about, have researched or you could create one of your own!	DT: Write your name using Saxon Runes. It must be large enough to display. 	Art: Design your own outfit that you would wear if you were a Viking. Do some research online if you are not sure what kind of clothes were worn at this time and complete a labelled diagram with your Viking outfit!
My activity passport: Plan and cook a meal for your family! Take a photo of the meal and write a short description of the dish you prepared. 	'Legendary Lives' Homework Menu Autumn Term 2 	Values/RRS: ARTICLE 31 (play and cultural and artistic activities) Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in cultural and artistic activities. Create a game to play with your friends. Then, write a set of instructions of how to play the game. You could include photos or illustrations of you playing the game too.
Online Safety: Write a short explanation text with the title 'How to deal with online bullying'	History: Draw a detailed picture of a Saxon artefact that you have researched online. Examples of these are the long boat at Sutton Hoo, the Staffordshire Hoard or a coin/piece of jewellery.	Civic Award: Discuss with your parents a skill you could learn or improve on for part 1b (non-physical) of our civic award. Example – Play chess. Design a poster outlining steps to achieve this.
